

MIRIAM POLPETTONI

MISS SIMS2CRI 2006

Miriam Polpettoni's most exciting moment is back in 2006, when she won the title of Miss Sims2Cri. Let's see what she's got to say.

Let's start with an easy one, just to relax you a bit... where are you from?

I'm from Pleasantview.

So you're born and have always lived there?

Yes, always in Pleasantview.

What do you think Pleasantview?

You know, the people I love more dearly live there, it's clear that, to me, it's the best city in the world, even if it's so small.

What do you think about moving or travelling for photo shootings and such?

I'd do anything to reach my dream, even moving in another city. I would come back whenever I could to visit my family and friends, of course.

Well, I hope you're feeling more relaxed... let's talk about the moment you've been elected Miss Sims2Cri... how did you feel?

Just thinking about it makes me so excited... I didn't realize what was happening. I heard my name being pronounced and then it was all claps and camera flashes. After I've worn the band I started crying!

Was it a hope or just a dream?

A dream. Looking around me I could see so many pretty girls, I'd lost even the hope of passing the first selection.

What did your mom say?

She's helped and encouraged me throughout the contest, she was behind the scenes supporting me and feeling as moved as me. She was very happy that I had won such an important title.

How was being replace by Isabella Modigliani? How did you feel?

At first I wasn't happy about it, that band had become my trophy, but I know she deserves it. It's her turn to enjoy the limelight.

Isabella is a brunette like you, are you happy with it or would you have preferred a blonde?

I was very glad to see another brunette at my place. Isabella is a gorgeous girl, blonde or brunette doesn't matter, she's worthy of taking my place.

What did you do before the contest? What are your projects now?

I was attending an acting school in Pleasantview, I love acting. For the near future I hope to continue my modelling career, or act in some film... fingers crossed!

Last year you posed for our calendar. How would you describe the experience?

Wonderful!
Incredible! It has been proposed to me without much advance, but it was an unique experience!

How did you get along with Amelia?

Even if she was an inexperienced model, Amelia showed she's got the numbers to be a real top model and helped me a lot overcoming the embarrassment of the first photo shoots.

Would you pose naked or almost naked again for another calendar?

I have no problems posing with little clothes on, but it must not be something vulgar.

What would you like to wear in the next photo shoots for Sims2Cri? Formal, underwear, bridal gowns possibly?

Tough question! All the clothes created by Sims2Cri's stylist are so beautiful, it's hard to choose!

What's your view on marriage and love?

Love and passion are the salt in our lives. Marriage is the salt shaker.

I know the questions are kind of dull, and even if you as your very attentive maybe you're getting bored. Now I want to know how you define yourself... who's Miriam, how was she and how much she's changed in this year being Miss Sims2Cri.

You know, many answer this question saying they're simple girls... I'm not simple at all! I've always been quite complicated, full of dreams and expectations. Becoming Miss Sims2Cri 2006 made me understand that you can only make your dreams real by working hard and believing.

How do people see you? Do they usually get the wrong impression of you at first?

I don't trust much people who base their judgement on first impressions. At first I look like a shy girl, who doesn't talk very much and rather introvert, but I'm the very opposite and the ones who have the patience to get to know me better will know it's true!

You've met our models... did any of them impress you? Have you impressed any of them? Jealousy?

I've got to say everyone's been very welcoming to me! Veronica's like a sister to me and... err... I've started a nice friendship with Hisashi and... but let's not talk about it!

What? Why? Ok, if it must be so... Tell us about your typical day.

I'm a great sleeper, so, if work allows for it, I wake up rather late (girls, sleeping makes your skin look beautiful!), then breakfast and I'm off for my pics, castings and whatnot! Lunch with Veronica, if we have the afternoon free we go shopping. Dinner with Hiroshi and then it's sleeptime!

Hiroshi? Is it a way not to say Hisashi?
Ok, I get it, you won't answer...

Three things you couldn't live without.

My cat Melisenda, Nutella (it doesn't really give you pimples!) and the people I love.

You've got a perfect body, will you reveal your secret to all the girls who are reading this interview and dream about taking your place?

Sleep, never skip meals and find happiness in small things, mens sana in corpore sano!

Your favourite dish?

I love first courses and desserts... carbonara and profiteroles... I love food!

What do you think about animals and fur coats?

I'm in an association which defends animals, I love them. Fur coats? Well, if I were asked to walk the runway wearing one, I'd refuse.

I won't give you a hard time asking you what you about us, and you've talked so much already! We've asked some of our fans whether they had any questions for you... so don't blame us for these!

From Ilenia: You've worked for Sims2Cri. How did you get along with the staff? To you feel gratified in your role?

Gratified is an euphemism! I thoroughly admire the staff and it's been an honour working with them!

From Giuseppevm: If you could change something about Isabella, what would you change?

I think she's gorgeous the way she is! I can't wait to get to know her better and maybe make friends with her and Giorgio.

Here we are, interview over. It looks like there's somebody waiting for you, keeping on checking if you're free... Curious... I'll let you go now, thanks for answering all the questions, even the most personal ones.

And now go, 5 minutes break, don't disappear where you know, with whom you know, mind you!
